

We All Rotate

About Us

We All Rotate, was born out of the devastating Earthquakes in Nepal in April/May of 2015. Founder Steve Beatty had been a regular visitor to Nepal and was trekking in Nepal when the earthquakes struck and saw firsthand the devastation and trauma inflicted upon the nation.

Today, their goal is to become a global aid organisation that provides financial backing, mentoring and opportunities to support the development of education, health and wellbeing in impoverished communities, currently focusing on Nepal.
